

The Putnam Transition Consortium is pleased to present
The 1st Workshop in Our Special Education Community Workshop Series

Parents as Partners: Effective Communication within Special Education

This presentation will offer parents a review of basic communication skills that can be useful during meetings and other discussions about their child's education program. Building confidence in the ability to communicate clearly and effectively will assist parents in becoming meaningful partners within the special education process.

Wednesday, October 23, 2019
6 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.
The Mahopac Library
668 Route 6, 3rd Floor Meeting Room
Mahopac, NY 10541

Our speaker will be a representative from the Community Support Network (CSN) at WIHD (Westchester Institute for Human Development).

Please RSVP HERE

If you have any questions, please email jbaumann@putnamils.org or call (845) 228-7457 ext. 1108

Additional workshops to be offered in 2019-20: OPWDD eligibility; Transition Planning & Options after High School; Healthy Relationships for Individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities; and, Mental Health Services in Putnam County

The Community Support Network (CSN) at Westchester Institute for Human Development is the Hudson Valley's resource for individuals with disabilities, their families, and the professionals supporting them. Their experts are knowledgeable about all of the disability systems serving individuals with disabilities across the lifespan and are available to help YOU. They provide resources, training, direct services, and support and guidance to families, schools, agencies, and individuals themselves on disability related issues and topics.