WILConnects

We at the Westchester Independent Living Center (WILC) are working from home to connect you to people and available services during these especially independent times.

We've also been helping our community connect with each other via our live, online group to share and listen to our experiences while living during the current Coronavirus Pandemic.

We laugh, cry, and share resources, creative ideas, cooking tips, etc. Time and time again we prove that when we share with and understand each other we reduce, and prevent further, the harm caused by times like these.

WILC will hold our WILConnects group on Tuesdays and Fridays from 2:30pm - 4pm.

Click this link and log on as a guest if you'd like to connect with us on 3/24 and 3/27/2020:
